

English 102: Rhetoric and Composition

Final Portfolio

Introduction:

A large part of composing is revising. All writers need time and feedback to improve upon and finalize their works. This assignment allows you to practice receiving and implementing feedback from your instructor and peers. Doing so will allow you to not only improve the first drafts of your papers but also reflect on what you've learned throughout the course.

Requirements:

Style guidelines: MLA 8

Portfolio:

Revised Final Annotated Bibliography: 10 sources

Revised Researched Argumentative Essay: 2,500 words minimum, 10 sources

Final Portfolio Reflection Length: 500-700 words minimum

Finalized Public Turn Project: materials you presented in class (as attachment, link, etc.)

Public Turn Reflection: 300-500 words minimum

Due Date for all:

- December 8, 11:59 PM

(There will be two separate folders, one for portfolio, one for public turn.)

Assignment Details:

Revisions

As your final exam, you will submit a portfolio that contains: (1) revised Annotated Bibliography with 10 sources total (10 sources from your RAE), (2) revised Researched Argumentative Essay, (3) Finalized Public Turn Project, (4) Public Turn Reflection, and (5) Final Portfolio Reflection. All your submissions should be Word docs.

Final Portfolio Reflection (500-700 words minimum):

After you have finished your revisions, this assignment asks you to reflect on the content in your final portfolio and how your final portfolio reflects what you've learned in this course. In your reflection, you can focus on whatever resonated with you about your assignments or what interested you as you put together this final portfolio. In particular, I am interested in your revision process. What did you revise? How did you choose? What resources did you use in the revision process? Why is your assignment better now? etc.

If you are happy with your RAE grade, you are not required to revise it. However, if you choose not to revise, you need to include an explanation as to why in your reflection.

This reflection should be in essay format, MLA style, Times New Roman font, font size 12. If you cite any sources in your reflection, include a Works Cited page.
